^C
_ Jake was lying on the couch, looking at the ^G ceiling,
^C
Wasn't having any fun, had a kind of tired feeling.
^F ^C
Katie came along and said, "Hey what's the matter with you?
^G ^G
You're stuck inside all by yourself, there's forty thousand things to do!"

^C
Chorus: There's forty thousand things to do.
^G
You've got a lot of choices.
^G
Ba da da da la la loo loo
^C
There's forty thousand things to do.

^C ^G
_ "You can go down to the zoo, see the monkeys and the lions,
^C
Get an ice cream and some popcorn, see giraffe's as tall as giants.
^F ^C
Or you can walk down to the park, maybe make a new friend,
^G ^G
Do a choo choo on the slide, climb back up and go again."

Chorus

^C ^G
_ "Lie on the grass and watch the clouds, maybe have a little picnic
^C
Play a game of hide and seek, write a song so you can sing it,
^F ^C
Ride your bike around the block, read a book or have a swim
^G ^C
Play some hockey on the street, don't care if you lose or win."

Chorus
